OWNERSHIP

WILLIAM O. DeWITT, JR.
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / GENERAL PARTNER

William O. DeWitt, Jr., was born August 31, 1941 and grew up in St. Louis as the son of former baseball executive and team owner, William O. DeWitt, and Margaret H. DeWitt. Mr. DeWitt led the organization of the Cardinals ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996 and is the principal owner of the Cardinals. He serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Gateway Group, Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and he oversees all financial and league matters for the team.

DeWitt is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School and holds a 1963 B.A. degree in economics from Yale University and a 1965 M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School.

DeWitt, who has been involved in baseball since his childhood, has held past investment interests in the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He has also served as a board member for the Cincinnati Bengals and the Cincinnati Stingers hockey team. His father owned the St. Louis Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's batboy. His uniform, which was worn by midget Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch-hitting appearance on August 19, 1951, is on loan to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

DeWitt is President of the investment firm Reynolds, DeWitt & Co. He is also Co-Chairman of Restaurant Management, Inc. and a board member of Sena Weller Rohs Williams, Inc. and U.S. Playing Card Company.

He has had investment interests in CEA Corporation (parent of Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Co.), Charter Cable Systems, Inc., Cincinnati Riverfront Coliseum, Coca-Cola Bottling Investment Group, Inc. (co-Chairman), Future Now Corporation (Publicly Traded on NASDAQ), Middle States Coca-Cola Bottling Group, Inc. (Vice-Chairman), Midwest Employers Casualty Company, Mississippi Valley Investment Company (Bank Holding Company), Republic Broadcasting Corporation, and Spectrum 7 Energy Corporation (Vice Chairman).

His numerous civic activities include President, Fund for Independent Schools of Cincinnati (Minority Scholarship Program), Hamilton County Republican Finance Committee, President, William O. and Margaret H. DeWitt Foundation, Semple Foundation Board Member, Yale University Development Board Member and Regional Chairman for the Yale Campaign, Cincinnati Art Museum Board Member, Taft Museum Board Member, Cabinet Member for Cincinnati Fine Arts Fund, United Way of Cincinnati and the Multiple Sclerosis and Salvation Army Board Member.

DeWitt is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children, Katie, Bill, Andrew and Margot. His sister, Donna "DeDe" DeWitt Lambert, is also an investor in the team.

Baur is the son of Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland. He was born in St. Louis on April 25, 1944 and attended Country Day School and has three grown children, Andrew, Todd and McKay.

MARK C. LAMPING
PRESIDENT

Mark C. Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on September 1, 1994 replacing Stuart F. Meyer, who announced his retirement on August 19.

In February 1994, he was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball League after serving as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing. In that position, he coordinated all sports marketing activities on behalf of the company's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping, 38, joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked in the company's corporate planning group before serving as a district sales manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for New Products and director of sales operations.

His civic activities include Board of Directors Roman Catholic Orphan Board, Fontbonne College Board of Trustees, Downtown St. Louis, Inc. Board of Directors, St. Louis Sports Commission Board of Directors, Matthews Dickey Boys Club Board of Advisors, and Chairman of the Old Newsboys Drive for children's charities.

A St. Louis native and graduate of Vianney High School, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business from St. Louis University. He lives in St. Louis County with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian, Lauren and Timothy.

WALT JOCKETTY
VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

Walt Jocketty, who was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on October 14, 1994, is entering his 23rd season in professional baseball. Last season, with the help of Jocketty's key acquisitions that brought nearly a dozen new faces to the St. Louis roster, the Cardinals returned to the postseason for the first time since 1987.

Jocketty, 46, served for 10 seasons as the Director of Baseball Administration for the Oakland A's before joining the Colorado Rockies front office in 1993. He served a total of 14 years with Oakland, beginning in March, 1980, when he was hired by Charlie Finley as Director of Minor League Operations and Scouting. Walt was instrumental in overhauling the A's minor league system and helped to turn the A's into one of baseball's most dominant franchises of the '80s by producing such standouts as Mark McGwire, José Canseco and Walt Weiss. Before joining the Cardinals, Walt had been the Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel for the Colorado Rockies.

Walt currently serves on Major League Baseball's Operation Committee which is responsible for negotiations between the Professional Baseball Association and Major League Baseball. He is also a board member for the Epworth Children's Home in St. Louis.

Jocketty is a native of Minneapolis, MN where he earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey, and they make their home in St. Louis County.

JERRY WALKER
VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jerry Walker was promoted to his current position as vice president of player personnel on February 1, 1997. In his role, Walker assists General Manager Walt Jocketty in personnel matters with the major league club and he is also responsible for overseeing the Cardinals player development and scouting activities. Jerry joined the Cardinals organization in November of 1994, when he was appointed as Director of Major League Player Personnel.

Upon the completion of his playing career in 1964, Walker managed five years at the minor league level for the New York Yankees, before turning his attention towards scouting in 1973. He scouted for the Yankees from 1973 until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named Yankees' major league pitching coach. He also served as the Houston Astros' major league pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was promoted to general manager of the Tigers in September of 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major league and minor league operations. In April of 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker compiled eight years in the majors with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62), and Cleveland (1963-64). He was named to the American League All-Star team in 1959 at the age of 20, becoming the youngest player to ever start the mid-summer classic.

Walker, 58, a native of Ada, Oklahoma, and his wife Janis, have two married daughters and four grandchildren.

BEHIND THE SCENES

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stan London has been the Cardinals' head physician for the past 28 seasons, since his associate, Dr. I.C. Middleman, passed away in September 1968. The 70-year-old Springfield, IL, native received his M.D. degree from Washington University in 1949.

As a student at Washington University, Dr. London excelled in baseball and is widely regarded as the school's greatest basketball player ever. While studying for his doctorate, Dr. London coached the university's baseball team and served as assistant basketball coach.

He is a fellow for both the American Board of Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical, and a partner in Parkerest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the St. Louis Hawks during the team's 11 seasons (1956-57 to 1966-67) in the National Basketball Association. He has tended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of the area's top all-time amateur athletes, Dr. London is a member of the Springfield (Ill.) High School Hall of Fame, the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame and was the first inductee to the Missouri Handball Hall of Fame. He also is a member of the Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and four grandchildren.

GENE GIESELMANN
TRAINER

Gene Gieselmann is in his 27th season as the Cardinals' head trainer. The 50-year-old Gieselmann has been a trainer in the organization since 1968, when he was appointed trainer at Class A St. Petersburg following his graduation from Wichita State University. The next season, he was named assistant trainer at the major league level, and in 1971, was appointed the Cardinals' head trainer.

Gieselmann was named a certified trainer by the National Athletic Association and is licensed by the state of Missouri in athletic training. He runs four clinics in the St. Louis area for the treatment of sports injuries.

During the 1986 off-season, Gieselmann was the trainer for the major league all-star team that toured Japan to play a seven-game series against a team of Japanese all-stars. He then traveled to Sydney, Australia, to serve as trainer for the Survival of the Fittest competition.

Gieselmann was trainer for the 1982, 1987 and 1993 National League All-Star teams and has been the event trainer for Superstars, Superteams and Battle of the Network Stars television programs. He is on the advisory board of the Missouri Humane Society. His hobbies include thoroughbred racing.

Gieselmann and his wife, Roseanna, have one son, Johnathon.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT TRAINER

Brad Henderson is entering his 10th season as the Cardinals' assistant trainer. The 35-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May 1988 and has been a trainer in the organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, MO, is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. His first trainer's position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) before joining the major league club in 1988. Henderson has been a NATA member since 1986 and is licensed by the state of Missouri. Brad is the National League Assistant Trainer Representative to the PBAT Executive Committee.

Henderson has also worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

Henderson is married to the former Julie Lynn Rounkles. The couple have a son, Blake Andrew, and a daughter, Brooke Marie. In his spare time, Brad enjoys running, horse racing and golf.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations, including all spring training arrangements at St. Petersburg.

Born in Norfolk, VA, and raised in St. Louis, Cherre is entering his 20th season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and received a bachelor's of arts degree (cum laude) from St. Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinal career in the group sales department, where he worked in 1977 and '78. He was named assistant director of public relations in January 1979 and held the position through 1980. He assumed his current position in January 1981.

Cherre, an ardent Notre Dame supporter, enjoys swimming, country and contemporary music, and fine dining. He has a daughter, Laura (12).

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Buddy Bates is in his 15th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. He succeeded Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years until retiring after the 1982 season.

The 44-year-old St. Louis native joined the Cardinals in 1969, his first of three seasons as a bat boy. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse man in 1972, holding the positions until assuming his current role in 1983.

Bates is a graduate of Central St. Louis High School, where he lettered in basketball. He attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. In his spare time, Buddy is a big supporter of St. Louis University's basketball program and enjoys collecting Motown music. Buddy was recently honored with the "Good Guy" award by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering his ninth season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been associated with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 33-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and began assisting in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983, following two seasons as bat boy. He enjoys watching sports and playing racquetball in his spare time. He and his wife, Dawn, have two children, Jessica and Jacob.

JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 32nd season with the Cardinals and his 14th season as visiting clubhouse manager.

The 44-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpires' room manager. In 1969 and 1970, he served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitors' clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Risch and his wife, the former Mary Catherine Arnold, have two children, Jessica and Joseph. Risch enjoys trout fishing, photography and racquetball in his spare time.

MIKE GIBBONS
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Gibbons, 28, begins his first season with the Cardinals as the Strength and Conditioning Coordinator. Gibbons joined the Cardinals after spending the 1996 season with the Florida Marlins. CAREER HIGHLIGHTS : 1977 – Selected by San Diego in fourth round of June free-agent draft and signed by Padres' scouts Cliff Ditto and Bob Fontaine…led Northwest League shortstops in assists (254), double plays (40) and fielding pct. (.943)…led loop in stolen bases with 30…during the off-season caught the eye of Padres brass with .323 avg. in Arizona Instructional League. 1978 – Became SD regular shortstop after only 68 games in the minor leagues…played in 159 games, leading the league in sacrifice hits with 28 and finishing 4th in stolen bases with 40…was runner-up to Atlanta's Bob Horner for Rookie of the Year honors. 1979 – Led N.L. shortstops with 555 assists…was League's 5th toughest hitter to fan (1 every 17.54 AB). 1980 – Capped a sensational defensive season at shortstop by winning his first Gold Glove after setting a new major league record for assists by a shortstop…set the new mark 9/26 vs LA when he surpassed a mark Pittsburgh's Glenn Wright had established in 1924. Wright's mark was 601 assists and Oz finished the season with 621…also participated in more double plays than any other N.L. shortstop…may have set the stage for his season by handling 16 total chances, including 12 assists, 4/12 vs SF…joined with Gene Richards and Jerry Mumphrey to become the first trio in N.L. history to all steal 50 bases in same season – Smith (57), Richards (61), Mumphrey (52)…led league with 23 sacrifice hits. 1981 – Played in all 110 games, tying for N.L. high…league leader in at-bats with 450…led N.L. shortstops in assists, total chances and fielding pct. 1982 – Was the N.L.'s best shortstop on a percentage basis, won his third straight Gold Glove and led the league in assists for the fourth straight year…984 fielding percentage is a Cardinal season record for a shortstop…not only did he maintain his level of performance on the field, but Ozzie also emerged as a solid hitter after working with Cardinal coaches at spring training on developing his swing to take advantage of Busch's artificial turf…after missing only 13 games in his first four major league seasons, Smith was sidelined for 18 days late in the year due to a hematoma of his right thigh…Smith set a 7-game World Series record for most putouts by a shortstop with 22. In 1982 Smith maintained his level of near perfect performances in the field; his .976 fielding percentage was best in the league…led the National League in chances with 658 and in games played with 110…was named one of St. Louis' Baseball Men of the Year by the local BBWAA Chapter…voted to UPI and

Sporting News post-season All-Star team. 1983 – Was the league's best shortstop in terms of putouts and total chances even though for the first time in five years he was edged out of the lead in the assist category, finished behind Houston's Dickie Thon…led the 1983 Cardinals in games played, was second in sacrifice hits and walks and third in doubles, triples, stolen bases and game-winning RBI. 1984 – Was recognized as the National League's premier shortstop on A.P., U.P.I., and The Sporting News post-season teams, and for the second consecutive season was voted the N.L.'s starting shortstop on the All-Star team…did not win this wide acclaim on past reputation either, he earned it on the field, leading the N.L. in fielding pct. (.982), while committing a career low 12 errors…also sparked the Cardinals with his bat and speed, his .314 mark from the right side of the plate was tops in his career and his 11 sacrifices led the team. On the basepaths, Ozzie was one of the league's most successful thieves making good on 35 of 42 stolen base attempts, a success rate of 83…was also one of the most difficult players to strikeout, averaging a strikeout only every 28.5 plate appearances…missed a month of the season when he was hit by a Ed Whitson pitch 7/13 that fractured the ulna bone in his right wrist. Returned from the disabled list 8/20 in grand fashion going 2-for-4 (double, triple)…thrilled opening night crowd with his traditional season opening pre-game backflip, and then closed the evening's festivities with a three-run homer to defeat PIT, 4-1…finished 10th in N.L. stolen bases (35). 1985 – Prior to home opener, 4/15, Cardinals end weeks of trade rumors and speculation by signing Smith to a four year contract extension. Ozzie pays immediate dividend on Redbird investment with 2-for-3 outing in opener and his first home run of season…goes through month of April flawless at shortstop, does not commit first error of season until 5/4…on 6/20, appearing to be a shoe-in for selection to third straight starting assignment at the All-Star Game, Ozzie vows to raise his batting average which stands at .242 before the mid-summer classic. He meets goal by hitting in 19 of next 22 games (22-for-75; .427), raising his average to .290 at the All-Star Break. In the All-Star Game, Smith is the only N.L. player to play the entire game. Six homers on season raises career total to 13, with all 13 coming from the right side of the plate for the switch-hitter…continues to be among the leagues toughest batters to strikeout with only 27 Ks in 615 plate appearances—one every 22.7 times…started 158 games at shortstop…tops N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, total chances and fielding pct…ties major league record held by Owen Busch and Don Kessinger for most seasons (6) with 500 or more assists 1978, '79, '80, '82, '83, '85…ties Michael Doolan's N.L. record for years leading league in assists (5)…has at least one hit in each of 6 L.C.S. games…hits first left-handed home run in 3,009 professional at-bats off Tom Niedenfuer in ninth inning of Game 5 giving St. Louis a 3-2 win…named Most Valuable Player of National League Championship Series…post-season awards included sixth consecutive Gold Glove Award at short and selection on Sporting News and UPI N.L. All-Star teams. 1986 – Was the Cardinals' most consistent player leading the team's regulars with a career high .280 average and winning his 7th straight Gold Glove for fielding excellence at shortstop…in four plate appearances on 5/1 at SD had a single, double, two walks, stole three bases and scored all three of the Cardinals runs in a 4-3 loss to Padres…had a nine-game hitting streak (11-for-34; .324) from 5/3-14…notched seventh career four-hit game on 6/2 at HOU…set a personal record with 48-game errorless streak from 7/23-9/15…stole his 150th base as a Cardinal, 8/12 at MTL…scored a run in eight straight games from 8/30-9/7…on 9/7 at HOU played his 701st game at shortstop for St. Louis moving into third place on Cards all-time games played by shortstop list behind Dal Maxvill (1054) and Marty Marion (1492)…that day also stole 300th career base…had hit in 9 of last 10 games (15-for-30; .500) from 9/24-10/5…Smith's fine season was recognized in a number of ways…received the fourth highest number of votes in fan balloting for All-Star game and made his fourth straight start…named shortstop on The Sporting News and U.P.I. post-season N.L. All-Star teams…was club leader in average, hits and walks…tied career high in RBI and had career bests in average and walks…was sixth in N.L. in walks and seventh in on-base pct. (.376)…was again toughest batter in league to strikeout (1 in 19.4 AB)…was on-base by hit or walk in 119 of 144 (83) starts…was 31 of 38 (82) in steal attempts, tied for seventh best success rate in N.L…marked fifth straight season with 25 or more steals…led N.L. shortstops for third straight year in fielding pct. (.978) and tied for loop lead in double plays (96). 1987 – In his 10th season of Major League play, Ozzie posted numbers that earned him strong consideration among MVP candidates…finished runner-up in the voting for N.L. MVP and his point total was the highest by a N.L. shortstop since Maury Wills won the MVP Award in 1962…undertook extensive off-season conditioning program that gave him added bulk and endurance…after a slow start caused by a sprained ankle suffered in early April, Ozzie raised his average from .172 to .291 (48-for-143; .336) during the course of 36 games…reached the .300 mark in batting for the first time in his career with a .303 mark…his 75 RBI without hitting a homer were the most by a Cardinal since Milt Stock's 76 RBI without a homer in 1920…the 75 RBI surpassed his previous season high of 54 RBI in 1985 and '86…finished third in the N.L. in hits (182), tied for second in doubles (40), first in sacrifice bunts (12) and was among league leaders in average (.303), stolen bases (43) and walks (89)…his 182 hits and 40 doubles were career bests…the 40 doubles were the most by a St. Louis shortstop since Dick Groat had 43 in 1963…hit his 200th career double on 7/23 at LA…was top vote-getter in fan balloting for the All-Star

OZZIE'S FAVORITE DEFENSIVE PLAYS

	Date	Situation	Defensive Gem
1.	4/20/78 vs ATL	4th Inning, 2 Out	Jeff Burroughs hits ground ball up middle. As Ozzie dives to left, ball caroms into air. Ozzie reaches high, grabs ball bare-handed, throws Burroughs out at first.
2.	8/4/86 vs PHI	9th Inning, 1 Out	Von Hayes hits shallow fly to left field. Outfielder dives headfirst toward infield, Ozzie dives headlong toward outfield and makes basket catch in midair.
3.	8/6/86 vs PHI	3rd Inning, 1 Out, 1 On	With Ronn Reynolds running from second on play, Gary Redus hits infield single to deep short. Instead of throwing to first, Ozzie throws behind Reynolds, who is tagged out after rounding third base.

THE ST. LOUIS CARDINALS COMMUNITY FUND

In January of this year the St. Louis Cardinals established Cardinals Care, The St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund. Members of the Cardinals ownership group personally committed $100,000 as the fund's inaugural benefactors. This newly formed, not-for-profit entity will be a major vehicle by which the St. Louis Cardinals express and manifest their strong commitment to the community in St. Louis.

Cardinals Care is a true team effort involving the entire Cardinals organization. Its Executive Board is made up of representatives of Cardinals ownership: William O. DeWitt, Jr., Frederick O. Hanser, Andrew N. Baur and David C. Pratt; management: President Mark Lamping and Vice President/General Manager Walt Jocketty; uniformed personnel including Manager Tony La Russa and players, both past and present; and Cardinals Care Director, Dr. Edward Lewis.

In February of this year, Cardinals Care, along with a select group of charter corporate sponsors, presented the first annual St. Louis Cardinals Winter Warm-Up, a free admission event attended by thousands of fans which featured a baseball clinic by Manager Tony La Russa and his coaches, batting cages, radar speed pitch, baseball drills and instruction, and interactive games. Current and former Cardinals players signed autographs at the event in exchange for donations to the Cardinals Care effort. A week after this event, upon signing a new three-year contract, Cardinals pitcher Donovan Osborne made a personal commitment of $50,000 to the Fund for each year of the agreement.

Throughout the year, Cardinals Care will conduct creative programs on many levels. Oriented toward benefiting area youth, Cardinals Care will offer outreach programs to youth groups including underprivileged, disabled and otherwise challenged or disadvantaged youth. These youngsters will be afforded opportunities to attend games and/or meet and interact with members of the ball club.

Cardinals Care will also conduct fund raising programs and projects affording fans a special item, experience or opportunity in exchange for donations to the effort. These funds will then be used in support of youth baseball activities and for the construction and/or refurbishment of playing fields for youth baseball.

To expand the benefits and make a difference in the lives of more children in the St. Louis area, funds will also be distributed in financial support of worthy efforts benefiting youth that are being made by a variety of other local, non-profit, charitable and service organizations in the community.

During the season, Cardinals Care will also recognize individuals who have demonstrated exceptional leadership and/or generosity in service to the community. Accepting nominations from Cardinals fans and Cardinals Care members, the Cardinals Care program will give winners an award, honor them at a game, and make a donation to their organization's effort in their name.

Participation in the Cardinals Care effort will be offered via individual memberships, business memberships, and corporate sponsorships. Some specific programs, projects and events will be done in partnership with individual corporate sponsors.

The focus of Cardinals Care is on "Team Play" and on "Giving Something Back" to the community that has so strongly supported the St. Louis Cardinals through the years.

THE MANAGER

ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10)

Tony LaRussa is entering his second season as the Cardinals' manager. LaRussa, who was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, guided the Cardinals to the NL Central title last season, his first year of managing in the National League after spending his first 17 years managing in the American League with Oakland and Chicago.

LaRussa, who was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press last year, begins the 1997 season as the leader in career wins among active managers with 1,408 and he ranks fifth in winning percentage (.528) among active major league skippers.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, LaRussa's honors include four Manager of the Year awards, one N.L. Central Division title, five American League Western Division titles, three American League Championships and one World Series Championship.

LaRussa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class A Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox.

In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, Tony quickly established himself as one of the game's top managers and he saw his efforts pay off in 1983, when he guided the ChiSox to an American League West title with baseball's best record, 99-63. He was rewarded that year with the first of his three Manager of the Year awards, drawing accolades from The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, Tony had the White Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing 5th that year with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manger's role with Oakland on July 7, 1986.

In just his second full year with the A's, 1988, Tony managed the club to an American League West record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the World Series. He once again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in baseball history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span LaRussa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, Tony guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, LaRussa became the 40th manager in Major League history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is the Oakland A's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City A's on the night that he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut just one year later with the A's. Tony went on to play professionally for 16 seasons. Following his stint with Kansas City in 1963, Tony didn't make it to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs.

LaRussa, who is the Cardinals' 48th manager, was actually employed by the Cardinals once previously, serving as both a player and coach for the club's triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, Tony passed the bar exam in December, 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn, late 1880s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25) who are all in the Hall of Fame.

LaRussa, 52, makes his off-season home in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). Tony was born on 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care.

THE COACHES

MARK STEPHEN DeJOHN (34)

BULLPEN COACH

DeJohn, 43, who joined the Cardinals coaching staff in 1996, served as the Cardinals' field coordinator for player development for three seasons and was a manager in the Cardinals' farm system from 1986-1991. He has also managed and coached in the Detroit Tigers, and Kansas City Royals' farm systems.

DeJohn was drafted by the New York Mets in 1971 and played in the Mets' farm system until his release in December 1977. He was signed by the Detroit Tigers in 1978 and completed his playing career in 1983. The former infielder saw his only major league action in 1982 with Detroit.

He managed the Detroit Tigers' Class AA London affiliate in 1992 before returning to the Cardinals' organization in 1993. Mark broke into the coaching ranks with the Tigers in 1984, serving as a minor league instructor, and he coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate during the 1985 season. He began his managerial career that same year with Detroit's Birmingham farm club.

He joined the Cardinals organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons.

Mark was originally drafted by the New York Mets in 1971, and later signed with the Toronto Blue Jays but never played in their organization.

DeJohn and his wife, Judith Marie, make their home in New Britain, Conn., with their two children, Timothy and Stephanie. DeJohn attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, Conn.

DAVID EDWIN (DAVE) DUNCAN (18)
PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 51, was named Cardinals' pitching coach on October 23, 1995. He previously had served as pitching coach of the Oakland A's since July 1986, when he, along with Tony La Russa, joined the American League club.

Under Duncan's guidance, the A's pitching staff proved to be one of the best in baseball. From 1988-1990, the Athletics had the lowest ERA in the league. In 1990, the A's topped the majors in ERA, becoming just the second A.L. pitching staff to lead the majors in ERA since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as pitching coach the Seattle Mariners, and the M's responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox. In Dave's first year with the Cardinals, the pitching staff set a club record for strikeouts in a season.

The former catcher signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut with the A's in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Dave moved with them and spent five years (1968-72) in Oakland as a player, appearing in both the 1971 and 1972 American League Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. After leaving the A's, Dave finished his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his career, Dave has been associated with six Cy Young Award winners. He coached with Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and LaMarr Hoyt, and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore when all six pitchers won their awards.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, Christopher and David, and they make their off-season home in Tucson, Ariz.

GEORGE ANDREW HENDRICK JR. (25)
HITTING COACH

Hendrick is entering his second season as the Cardinals' hitting coach and his second season as a coach at the major league level. "Silent George," who played for the Cardinals from 1978 to 1984, served as a roving hitting/outfield instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system for three years (1993-95) prior to joining the big league coaching staff.

A four-time All-Star, Hendrick concluded his 18-year playing career in 1988 with California. He was drafted by the Oakland A's in the first round (first player selected) in the January 1968, free-agent draft and made his big-league debut with the A's in 1971. He was traded with Dave Duncan to the Cleveland Indians in March, 1973, for catcher Ray Fosse and infielder Jack Heidemann. He posted a .278 career batting average in 2,048 games with Oakland (1971-72), Cleveland (1973-76), San Diego (1977-78), St. Louis (1978-84), Pittsburgh (1985) and California (1985-88).

The 47-year-old Hendrick played for World Series winners with the Cardinals in 1982 and the A's in 1972. George holds the Cardinals single-season record for sacrifice flies (14 - 1982).

He and his wife, Heidi, make their home in Los Angeles. His son, Brian, was a former standout performer on the California University basketball team.

RENE GEORGE LACHEMANN (15)
THIRD-BASE COACH

Lachemann, 51, most recently served as manager of the Florida Marlins, guiding them to a 221-285 record in his three-plus seasons (1993-96). Lachemann, who also has had major league managerial experience with Seattle (1981-83) and Milwaukee (1984), served as a coach on Tony La Russa's Oakland A's teams for six years (1987-92), the first two as first base coach and the last four as third base coach. He coached third base for the Boston Red Sox from 1985-86. Between 1986-92, Rene participated as a coach in five of seven American League Championship Series and four of seven World Series.

The former catcher was signed by the Kansas City Athletics in 1964 after his freshman season at the University of Southern California. His professional playing career spanned from 1964-1972, and included major league stints with both Kansas City (1965-66) and Oakland (1968).

The Los Angeles native began his coaching career in the Oakland farm system, managing from 1973-77, before moving to the Mariner's system in 1978. Lachemann earned a promotion to the Mariners on May 6, 1981, replacing Maury Wills as the M's manager, making him the youngest manager in the majors at the time of his debut.

Rene is one of three brothers who have made careers in professional baseball. Marcel joined Rene with the Marlins as the club's first pitching coach, before taking the Angels managing job in 1994. Marcel will serve as the Angels pitching coach this season. "Lach's" bother Bill was a catcher in the Dodgers' system and was most recently a coach with the Angels. All three brothers graduated from Dorsey High School in Los Angeles. Rene worked as a batboy for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 1959-62.

Lachemann and his wife, the former Lauri Thomas, reside in Scottsdale, Az. during the off-season. They have two sons, Jim (11/25/64) and Britt (9/25/68). Name is pronounced LATCH-man.

CARNEY RAY LANSFORD (12)
BENCH COACH

Lansford, 39, who served as a part-time instructor with the Cardinals last season, will handle the bench and infield coaching duties this season. The former third baseman enjoyed a brilliant 15-year career in the majors, and retired from active play following the 1992 season. After spending the 1993 season away from baseball, Lansford joined Manager Tony La Russa and the Oakland A's as an infield coach in 1994 and spent two seasons with the Athletics.

Lansford graduated from Wilcox H.S. in Santa Clara, Calif. before signing his first professional contract with the California Angels in 1975. In 1978, at the age of 21, he was the Angels starting third baseman and, after batting .294, finished third that season in the American League Rookie of the Year balloting. After three seasons in California, Carney was traded to the Boston Red Sox with Mark Clear and Rick Miller in exchange for Rick Burleson and Butch Hobson.

In his first year with the BoSox, 1981, he became the first right-handed hitter in 11 years to lead the A.L. in batting with a .336 mark. After one more season in Boston, in which he again hit over .300, Carney was traded to the A's for Tony Armas. For the next 10 seasons (1983-92), Lansford anchored the A's third base position.

Lansford earned selection to the American League All-Star team in 1988, and he finished second in the A.L. batting race to Kirby Puckett in 1989, batting .336. He capped off the 1989 season by leading the A's to the World Championship, and during the postseason he batted .444 with a World Series homer and eight RBI.

He suffered a serious injury to his left knee during a snowmobiling accident New Year's Eve 1990, and missed most of the 1991 season. He returned in 1992 to captain the A's to their fourth division title in five years.

Lansford played Little League Baseball and as a 12-year-old, helped lead his San Jose area team to the Little League World Series finals. He was earned 10 letters in football, basketball and baseball at Wilcox High School. Carney and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Joshua and Jared, and they make their home in Baker, Oregon.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)
FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 46, begins his second season with the Cardinals this year. Last season was McKay's first with the Cardinals, ending a 16-year association with the Oakland A's, where he had coached since 1984. Dave served as a first-base, bullpen and bench coach with the A's, and handled the first-base coaching duties for Tony La Russa from1989 to 1995.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minors before breaking in with the Twins in a big way by homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on August 22, 1975. He also hit safely in 21 of his first 22 games in the majors.

After the 1976 season, the Toronto Blue Jays selected McKay in the expansion draft, and he was the starting third baseman in the Jays' first game ever. He split time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979 before signing with the A's in 1980. Dave played for Oakland from 1980-82, helping the A's to the Western Division crown in 1981 by batting .288 in the latter half of the season and by belting a home run in the divisional playoff series vs Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player/coach.

Dave earned a degree in physical education from Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash. and later attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb.

He was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark. The couple make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with their son, Cody.

LOUIS CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 57, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 17th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform #20 is one of nine that have been retired by the Cardinals.

Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

ROBERT GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time while pitching for the Cardinals from 1959 to 1975, is entering his second season as a Cardinals special instructor.

Gibson, 61, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts during the month, tying an N.L. record.

In World Series competition, few players compared with Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters in nine seasons, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform number 45 is one of nine to be retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb.

ALBERT FRED "RED" SCHOENDIENST (2)
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 55 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate compliment with induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His famous uniform #2 was retired by the Cardinals last May.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Illinois, and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four married children: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the first round (16th player overall) of the June 1993 free-agent draft.

M.L. SERVICE: 1.016

1996 SEASON: Rookie right-hander put together one of the finest frosh seasons ever by a Redbird pitcher...finished the year with 13 wins, the most by a STL rookie since 1967 (Dick Hughes -16)...his 131 strikeouts were the most by a Cardinal rookie since 1971 (Reggie Cleveland -148)... he and Expos' Ugueth Urbina were only rookie pitchers in the NL to post a double-digit win total...the Cards were 14-18 in his starts & averaged 4.9 runs/game support (158 runs)...Alan owned a 2.21 ERA (85.2 ip/21 er) in the 12 starts he won, but a 6.99 mark (104.1 ip/81 er) in his 20 starts without a win...10 of his 13 wins came in night games...suffered tough stretches in May (1-2, 7.67 ERA) & July (3-2, 6/98 ERA), but was a solid 3-1, 2.65 ERA in June...his longest win streak was three games (4/10-20 & 7/6-19)...Alan made two relief appearances, the first ever of his professional career...suffered 4-2 defeat in relief on 9/11 at SF, as Barry Bonds tagged him for a 2-run homer in the 8th, breaking a 2-2 tie...he allowed two unearned runs in 4.2 ip during his start 9/6 vs Padres, before leaving the game after being hit by Steve Finley's line drive off his right wrist in the 5th...was used in relief for first time in his professional career on Labor Day (9/2), & gained win vs Astros in 8-7 x-inning affair...became Cards' winningest rookie since 1971 (R. Cleveland) as he gained a 2-1 win over the Rockies on 8/31 for win #12...dropped a 4-1 decision at HOU 8/25, allowing three runs in 6 ip...won for the first time since July 19 when he tossed a CG 6-1 win over the Dodgers on 8/14, allowing just five hits...made his longest start (7 ip) since June 15, but had no-decision in Cards' 5-3 loss to the Giants on 8/8, allowing just one run on six hits...Terrell Wade & two Braves' relievers held the Cards in check, as Alan's 3-game win streak came to an end in 4-1 loss to ATL on 7/24...became Cards' first 10-game winner, as he battled Cubs & rain delays for a 9-1 win on 7/19...earned his first career win in three starts vs the Cubs on 7/14, as he & Cards held on for a 7-6 win at the "Friendly Confines"... Redbirds provided 11 runs & 17 hits in support of his 11-7 win over the Braves 6/26 at ATL...allowed two runs (one earned) in 6 ip on 6/21at MTL before departing with game tied at 2-2...the Expos went on to win 4-3 in 12 innings...Alan supplied Cards' first two runs with bases-loaded 2-run double in the 5th...won at home for the first time since 4/15, as he posted a 4-2 win over the Mets on 6/15 at Busch...lowered his ERA below the 5.00 mark for the first time since the end of April...earned his first ML shutout with a 3-0 CG effort on 6/3 at San Diego...it was his second CG effort of the season...recorded wins in each of his first three decisions and finished the month of April with a 3-1, 4.89 mark...fanned a career-high 11 batters in complete-game win vs MTL on April 10...the 11 K's were the most by a Cards' pitcher since 1992...worked 8 scoreless innings in a 1-0 at PHI on April 20...his first and only loss for the month came on April 25 vs NY...the Cards were 3-3 in his six starts...fanned 34 batters in 35 ip...he and brother Andy became the first Cardinals' brother pitching tandem since Lindy and Von McDaniel teamed together in 1957-58...they were the first brothers to share 10-win seasons since Joe & Phil Niekro did so in 1985. 1996 POSTSEASON: Made postseason debut in fourth game of N.L. Championship Series 10/13 vs ATL, retiring all four hitters he faced to keep deficit at 3-0 before Cards came back for 4-3 win in game started by older brother Andy (see POSTSEASON HISTORY)...held Braves to two runs and three hits in five innings in Game Six start, a 3-1 loss.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993 – Allowed just two home runs in his 37 innings...Posted a 2.01 ERA in four home starts, but had a 6.14 mark in three starts on the road. 1994 – Made a rapid rise through the Cardinals' farm system, posting a combined 17-3 record with a 2.28 ERA...Led all of minor league baseball with his 205.2 innings pitched, and his 2.28 ERA was 9th among all minor league hurlers...Finished third among minor league pitchers with 184 K's, and his .197 opponents average was 2nd...Hurled a 2-hitter in his first AA start, and a 4-hitter in his first AAA start. 1995 – Started out strong, but season was shortened due to injury...began the year 2-0 with a 1.74 ERA in his first five games at Louisville (AAA) before elbow injury put him on the shelf following five scoreless IP in 4/29 start vs New Orleans...missed nearly four months due to inflammation and tightness in his right elbow and forearm...returned to active roster on 8/9 in start vs Iowa...was held to two innings of work as he was working off a pitch count...was stretched out to 4 IP in 8/14 start vs Omaha and went to 6 IP on 8/19 vs Indy...Alan was 2-2 with a 3.24 ERA (25 IP/9 ER) in his six starts following return to the active roster...he was 2-0 during post-season, helping Louisville to opening round series sweep of Indy with a CG shutout in Game #3 of playoff series...earned 2nd post-season win in Louisville's Game #3 win over Buffalo on 9/13 in the American Association Championship series...was 4-2 with a 2.41 ERA in 11 starts at Louisville, his first full year at the triple-A level...held opposing batters to a .185 mark and fanned 54 in his 56 IP...was purchased from Louisville on 9/16 & was 1-2 in three starts for the Cardinals...made his ML debut on 9/19 at PIT, working four innings...lasted just 3.1 IP in 9/25 start at CHI...earned his first ML win on 9/30 vs PIT...fanned 10 in his 8.2 IP, equaling the Cards single-game strikeout high for the year...fanned a total of 20 batters in his 16 IP with the Cards...won Arizona Fall League top honors for pitching with 6-1 mark and a 1.78 ERA...also established AFL record for strikeouts with 62.

1996 SEASON: Spent full season in majors for first time, but was available for just two-thirds of it...like year before, made just one start, incurring loss 4/7 at MON though tying career high with six strikeouts...recorded 100th career strikeout 4/10 vs CHI...allowed one earned run over 3.2 innings 4/24 vs PHI, but that did not happen before Lance tied game with two-run single that completed comeback from 6-1 deficit he inherited...went on to win career-best four straight decisions over 15 appearances, 4/27 - 6/14...included was a string of eight consecutive scoreless outings 4/30 - 6/1 (6.2 IP)...provided own display 7/4 at LA with four innings of one-hit, shutout pitching while striking out four against one walk...after walking only batter faced 8/4 at CHI, went on DL next day...arthroscopic surgery 9/13 revealed and repaired labrum tear in left shoulder.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1990 — Held Northwest League batters to .174 average pitching for Class A Spokane in first pro season...appeared 23 times, 22 in relief, going 7-3 with 1.51 ERA and averaged 13.06 strikeouts per nine innings (104 K/71.2 IP). 1991 — Tried as a starter (all 28 outings), led all of Class A with four shutouts for Waterloo of the Midwest League...finished as league runner-up with seven complete games, 200 innings and 201 strikeouts, and placed fourth with his 14 wins...named team MVP and earned spot on Midwest League All-Star team. 1992 — Won five of first seven starts en route to 10-5 record for Class AA Wichita...his .667 winning percentage led Texas League and he tied for league lead with 27 starts...struck out season-high 11 batsmen 7/30 at Arkansas...having thrown a shutout in his only complete game during the season, tossed another in Texas League postseason series vs Shreveport. 1993 — Promoted to Class AAA Colorado Springs after strong outing in Rockies' first major-league spring camp...made big-league debut 5/19 at SD and garnered first hit but former organization beat him 7-3...made two more starts before being optioned back to Colorado Springs 6/2...went 9-7 and shared Pacific Coast League lead with four complete games...landed berth on N.L. team that played in Class AAA All-Star Game at Albuquerque...recalled 8/27, assuming uniform number 28 after wearing 47 during first stint, the change necessitated by the arrival of Bruce Hurst...it seemed to change his luck, because he won his first two starts...claimed first major-league victory 8/29 at NY, allowing just five hits in complete-game 6-1 decision and driving in a run...went seven innings, tripled and scored twice in next start,

10-4 win 9/4 vs PIT...furthered his cause at bat in final start, a no-decision 9/9 at PIT, recording two sacrifice bunts...hit .300 (3-10) with three sac bunts and a walk...entered in relief for first time in majors 9/18 vs LA, as he would in three remaining appearances thereafter. 1994 — Started again at Colorado Springs, but spent enough time in two big-league stints to earn four wins and Rockies' Rookie-of-the-Year award from Colorado BBWAA chapter...won back-to-back starts 6/17 at LA and 6/22 vs HOU...held Astros to two runs over eight innings while scoring a pair himself, driving in another with a sac fly and doubling along the way...posted career-high six strikeouts over six innings in 7/8 loss at FLA...surrendered three runs over seven innings in 15-4 victory 7/16 vs STL...made only relief appearance of season 8/4 at HOU, three days after getting fourth and final win of '94 on same field. 1995 — Opened season on disabled list after spraining ankle early in abbreviated spring training but would win three decisions in a late-season stint that proved crucial to Rockies' march to wild-card berth...having been moved full-time to bullpen, made first opening-day roster, but had only two relief appearances before expanded team lists were cut and was optioned to Colorado Springs...recalled 6/5, but sent back south again after three outings...summoned to Denver once more 7/12, for keeps...would finish season 28-for-33 in first batters retired and permitting only six of 27 inherited runners to score (including two of last 16)...two-run homer by Ryan Thompson 7/14 at NY represented only earned runs scored against Lance in first 15 games back...struck out season-high five that night in four innings, longest relief outing of season...ER-free streak was extended 16.2 innings over 13-plus appearances, 7/14 - 8/11 (allowed unearned run, 7/22 vs NY), before being snapped 8/12 at ATL...opponents hit .158 (9-57) during this span...streak reached zenith 7/25 at PHI, when he set down all 10 Phillies to bat against him, four on strikes...gave six bases on balls in 39.1 innings after final recall, and none in 14 straight games (19.2 IP) 7/25 - 8/27...earned first major-league save 8/16 at CIN by entering to record final out of 6-4 win, and first pro save since 1990 with Spokane...in only start of season, 9/12 vs ATL, allowed only two runs in five innings to put Rockies 10 games over .500...retired only batter faced in season finale, 10/1 vs SF, giving teammates chance to pull out 10-9 win and again go 10 over .500 - and into postseason...opened postseason career as pinch-hitter in Game One of N.L. Division Series, 10/3 vs ATL...started Game Two, one night later, giving three runs over five innings and finishing with no decision in Braves' 7-4 win.

MISC: A 1985 graduate of Nicolet High School in Glendale, Wis., he hurled a perfect game his senior season...attended and pitched for University of Wisconsin...born in England, became naturalized U.S. citizen prior to start of 1994 season...along with wife Kelly, the Painters reside in Highlands Ranch, Col.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to take the championship.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out, two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

BROTHER DUOS

When Alan Benes entered to pitch in the sixth inning of Game Four of the 1996 National League Championship Series against the Atlanta Braves, a game in which his brother, Andy, started, it marked the first time siblings had pitched in a postseason game. The only other brothers to both pitch in a series were the Deans, Dizzy and Paul, who claimed all four Cardinal victories in the 1934 World Series versus the Detroit Tigers.

Andy and Alan Benes are the sixth pair of brothers to appear in a postseason series, and the fifth to both play in the same game. They are the third such duo to appear in a Cardinal postseason series, joining the Deans and the Coopers. Mort and Walker Cooper, baseball's only postseason fraternal battery, paired during the 1942 and 1943 Series against the New York Yankees. The Coopers also teamed for the Redbirds in the all-St. Louis Series of 1944 versus the Browns. Their appeared together in six World Series games, a record equalled by Matty and Felipe Alou of the San Francisco Giants in the 1962 Series opposite the Yankees.

The first postseason sibs were Lloyd and Paul Waner, who each started all four games of the 1927 Fall Classic for the Pittsburgh Pirates against the Yanks. The only other brothers to appear in an N.L. Championship Series game were the Aarons, Hank and Tommy, who both took part in the second game of the 1969 NLCS for the Braves versus the Mets.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1899 The team changed its name from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the Triple Crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the batting title with a .424 average, the highest mark in the National League since 1900.

1925 Hornsby won his second Triple Crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the Triple Crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch-hitting in the sixth inning, doubled against the Cubs at Wrigley Field on May 13 to collect his 3,000th career hit.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened the new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. The winning run scored when Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at that time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames. The playing surface at Busch Stadium was changed from grass to artificial turf.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extends his major league record for most season 200 or more strikeouts to nine. Gibson sets National League record with his 2,786th strikeout, the most lifetime for a right-handed pitcher. Brock extends his record for most consecutive season, 50 or more stolen bases to 8. Cardinals draw 50,000,000th fan since 1900.

1973 Brock steals his 600th base and moves into 9th place on the all-time list. Brock sets major league record for stealing 50 or more bases for 9 consecutive years. Gibson moves into second place on all-time strikeout list. Torre gets his 2000th hit and 1000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' one-season mark and Max Carey's National League career record. Lou moves from ninth to second on major league's all-time career stolen base list. Bob Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000, the third highest home attendance in their history. Red Birds and Mets play 25 inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride named "Rookie Of The Year."

1975 Lou Brock gets 2500th hit and 800th stolen base of his career. Bob Gibson retires after 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by SRO crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day turnout of 50,548 is largest regular season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in league batting race with .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal Manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on managing, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post -season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries. The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record. The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9 games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 games as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win a New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought such names as Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite their fifth-place finish, the Cardinals drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on September 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout", the Cardinals never lived up to those expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Red Schoendienst managed the club on an interim basis until August 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth consecutive season, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players in key roles. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and filled Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The 1994 season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the season, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition outscored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite terribly inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty as the club's general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

1995 The 1995 season was disappointing in most respects, with the Cardinals posting a 62-81 mark and their worst winning percentage (.434) since 1990. The schedule was reduced to 144 games due to the players' strike that continued into the first week of April. Once play began on April 26, the Cardinals never challenged for the NL Central lead. On June 16, Manager Joe Torre was fired and replaced by Mike Jorgensen. Although the team languished near the Central Division basement, there were a number of individual highlights. Reliever Tom Henke saved 36 of 38 opportunities, including a team-record 22 straight to begin the season, and won his first Rolaids Relief title. He also notched his 300th career save, becoming the seventh pitcher to reach that plateau. Henke headlined a bullpen that led the NL with a 2.71 ERA and a .225 opponents' batting mark. Rich DeLucia topped the team with eight wins (the lowest-ever total to lead the club), all in relief. While starters Danny Jackson and Ken Hill failed to fulfill expectations, Mike Morgan, who was acquired in a June trade for Todd Zeile, gave the Busch Stadium crowd a night to remember on July 3 when he held Montreal hitless for 8.1 innings. On offense, the Cardinals' outfield trio of Bernard Gilkey (a team-high .298 BA), Ray Lankford (25 HRs, 82 RBIs) and Brian Jordan (22 HRs, 81 RBIs) led the way. Lankford's 25 homers were the most ever by a Cards center fielder, and he became just the seventh Cardinal to hit 25 homers since Busch Stadium opened in 1966. Lankford also was a force on the basepaths, tying Jordan for the team lead with 24 steals, thus becoming only the fifth Cardinal and the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs and steals. Jordan and Lankford also formed the Redbirds' first 20-homer tandem since 1980. First baseman/outfielder John Mabry (.307) narrowly missed qualifying for the NL Top 10 in batting, but his average topped all NL rookies and earned him a spot on the Topp's All-Rookie team. Ozzie Smith, who was slowed by a shoulder injury, added to his collection of fielding records on Sept. 15 when he turned his 1,554th double play, an all-time high among shortstops. He also became the first big-league shortstop since 1950 to play at the age of 40 and the first Cardinal shortstop to do so since 1918. Off the bench, veteran Gerald Perry became the club's all-time pinch-hit leader (70), rookie Mark Sweeney hit in seven straight pinch at-bats (one short of the major league record) and Danny Sheaffer hit the Cards' first pinch grand slam in nearly 10 years. The Cardinals took part in two bizarre games at Dodger Stadium: on May 12 they committed seven errors, their highest single-game total since 1940, and on Aug. 10 they recorded a 2-1 forfeit win, the first forfeited game in the majors since 1979. A busy off-season included the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the announced sale of the club to a group of long-time Cardinals fans led by Fred Hanser, William DeWitt Jr. and Andrew Baur. The Busch Stadium playing surface was changed to natural grass prior to the 1996 season, replacing the artificial turf that had been a fixture since 1969.

1996 The Cardinals 1996 season was marked by many "hellos" and a heartfelt "good-bye", as the Redbirds returned to the postseason for the first time in nearly a decade. A season that began with many changes, including new ownership, a new manager and coaches and several new players, began slowly but ended with a renewed spirit and promise for the future. The 1996 season also marked the end of an era, as sure-to-be Hall of Famer Ozzie Smith completed his final season as a player. After falling to nine games below .500 following a series loss at Colorado in mid-May, the Cardinals began their climb towards the pennant with a sweep of the Astros that was followed closely by a 17-10 June mark. Tony La Russa's charges reached the All-Star break tied for the Central Division lead and the race remained close until the Redbirds took flight with a Labor Day weekend series sweep over the Astros. The '96 season could certainly be described as a "team" effort, with the entire roster making significant contributions throughout the year. Brian Jordan, Ray Lankford and Ron Gant gave the Cardinals one of the game's top outfield trios, while veterans such as Gary Gaetti and Ozzie Smith teamed with Royce Clayton and John Mabry to give the Cardinals a strong infield. Jordan led the league with his remarkable .422 batting average with runners in scoring position and along with Lankford provided the Cardinals with dazzling outfield play. Gant, who missed over a month due to injury, continued to display his longball talents (team-leading 30 HR's), providing a steady threat in the lineup. Brothers Andy (18-10) and Alan Benes (13-10) combined for 31 wins and newcomer Todd Stottlemyre fashioned 14 "W's" in his first NL season. Donovan Osborne also finished in double digits with a win total of 13. The bullpen was anchored by relief ace Dennis Eckersley (30 saves in 34 tries) while veteran lefties Rick Honeycutt and Tony Fossas teamed with right-handers T.J. Mathews and Mark Petkovsek to round out the relief corp. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi helped to stabilize the pitching staff and contributed several key hits during the year as he completed his 10th season as a Cardinal. Fan-favorite Willie McGee, who batted .350 in the pinch, returned as a member of the Cardinals for the first time since 1990, and it was if he had never left...the 1996 season also featured many club-record achievements, including a seven-homer game by the Cards at Chicago's Wrigley Field, tying a 56-year-old club record, a club record 1,050 strikeouts by the pitching staff, and five RBIs by Willie McGee in a single inning, tying a club record that was set by Chick Hafey in 1930. The Cardinals paid tribute to three of their greats, retiring the uniform numbers of Red Schoendienst (#2), Enos Slaughter (#9) and Ozzie Smith (#1). The Cardinals made their first postseason appearance in nine years and swept the first three games of their best-of-five Division Series with the San Diego Padres. After taking a 3-1 lead over defending World Champion Atlanta in the N.L. Championship Series, the Cardinals lost three-straight to the Braves, including a 15-0 defeat in Game #7. The 1996 season marked the return of a natural grass playing field to 30-year-old Busch Stadium — one of many stadium upgrades that Anheuser-Busch completed before selling both the team and stadium to a local ownership group led by Bill DeWitt, Jr., Fred Hanser and Drew Baur.

BUSCH STADIUM

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. realized that if the team was to continue to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 31-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Through the 1996 season, more than 60 million people have attended 2,374 games at Busch Stadium.

Recent improvements include the return in 1996 of a natural-grass playing surface, which replaced the Astroturf that had been in place since 1970; the opening of the Family Pavilion, featuring a variety of attractions for families and children; Homer's Landing, a picnic area located above the Cardinals' bullpen in left-center and offering a full view of the field; a more traditional "ballpark green" color scheme for the outfield fence and stadium trim; and installation of club box seats behind home plate and along the foul lines to bring fans closer to the action.

Other improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. The Stadium Club was totally renovated and included the addition of a sports theme bar.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet and covers more than 12 acres.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

Field dimensions, from home plate: left-field line, 330 feet; left-center field, 372; center field, 402; right-center field, 372; right-field line, 330. Outfield walls are 8-feet high.

Busch Stadium capacity is 49,676.

BUSCH STADIUM CHANGES FOR 1997

Manually Operated Scoreboard – A new, nostalgic scoreboard, located in the upper terrace of center field, will feature inning-by-inning linescores, including pitching changes, for all National and American League games, as well as the Cardinals game. The area also will feature flag decks commemorating the Cardinals' nine World Championship teams and nine retired uniform numbers. The scoreboard, 17½-feet high and 270-feet wide, will span 11 seating sections, making it the largest scoreboard of its kind.

New Busch Stadium Logo – A colorful logo blends the old and new, featuring the famous Cardinal bird perched atop a baseball bat, looking out over bright blue "Busch" type and a red ribbon adorned with the word "Stadium" in script. These elements are framed by a green background that harkens back to old-time baseball yet complements the contemporary look.

Visitors Bullpen – The visitors bullpen will be moved to a new elevated area behind the right-center field fence, where it will be visible to all fans. In 1996, the pen was behind the left-field wall, where it was unseen by most fans. The relocation will reduce the power alley in right-center field to 372 feet from 375 feet.

Seating Changes/Crosswalk Addition – Upper terrace seats originally added for football will be removed to make room for additional handicapped-seating areas and a crosswalk that will encircle the entire stadium. Restroom upgrades and expanded disabled-seating areas also will be made to the loge section. Due to the many changes, stadium capacity will be reduced by 14 percent, to 49,676 from 57,673.

BUSCH STADIUM ATTRACTIONS

Busch Stadium Family Pavilion – The Busch Stadium Family Pavilion, located between Gates 7 and 8, adjacent to the Stan Musial statue and Plaza of Champions, features a variety of attractions inside and outside Busch Stadium. The Family Pavilion is open before, during and after all home games, as well as for selected special events during the year. All fans with a Cardinals ticket are admitted to the Pavilion for free. There is a nominal charge for select attractions. The Family Pavilion's interactive games and attractions include:

- Power Alley – Fans get a chance to step into a state-of-the-art batting cage and hit real baseballs thrown by life-size video images of popular major league pitchers.
- Pitcher's Dream – Pitchers can take the mound to test their speed and accuracy with the latest in radar speed pitch technology.
- Home Run Derby – Youngsters can take their cuts in T-ball batting cages.
- Fantasy Play-by-Play – Future broadcasters will get their chance to enter the broadcast booth and call great moments in Major League Baseball history and come away with a videotape of their experience.
- Sports Video Stations – The latest in computer sports video games will be geared to challenge rookies as well as big-leaguers.
- Amusematte – Visitors' images are digitally inserted into a Major League Baseball scene or other unique setting and converted to a photograph.
- Cardinal "Bird" Tags – Watch as the "penny man" creates a custom keepsake out of a genuine U.S. penny. Visitors can wear the keepsake as Cardinal "bird" tags or collect the many unique variations.
- Cardinals Stage – Periodic appearances by players, coaches and other baseball celebrities. Also planned are clinics, demonstrations and entertainment.
- Family Pavilion Food Plaza – A place for fans to sit down and enjoy specialty food and beverages in a relaxing atmosphere.

Homer's Landing Picnic Area – Before the 1996 season, part of the left-field bleachers area was redesigned as a picnic area, complete with tables, concessions and a panoramic view of the action. Accessible to all fans entering Busch Stadium, the tiered picnic area also offers a great view of the Cardinals' bullpen, which was relocated to the left-field "wagon gate" area. The picnic area also is available to groups for pregame parties and events.

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

MIKE JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mike Jorgensen begins his sixth year as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development.

Mike was named director of player development on February 5, 1992, succeeding Ted Simmons, who joined the Pittsburgh Pirates as general manager. Jorgensen had been working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990 after managing the Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989. Jorgy made his managerial debut following the dismissal of Joe Torre on June 16, 1995 and guided the Cards to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, Mike also remained in his post as director of player development. Jorgensen returned to his player development post on a full-time basis following the conclusion of the 1995 season.

After retiring as a player following the 1985 season, Jorgy was immediately hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who had been hired to manage the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen led St. Petersburg to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was signed by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal in a multiplayer deal for Rusty Staub at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland (1977), Texas (1978-79), the Mets again (1980-83), Atlanta (1983-84) and the Cardinals (1984-85), arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, NJ, and his wife, the former Brenda Rice, have three children; Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81) and one grandchild; Eric (10-12-95). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, NY, and attended St. John's University. Jorgensen enjoys quail hunting, cooking and coaching basketball in his spare time.

MARTY MAIER
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Marty Maier, who was appointed director of scouting following the 1993 season, is entering his fourth year as the Cardinals chief evaluator of amateur players. He had served as the Cardinals assistant scouting director since 1988.

The former minor league infielder joined the Cardinals as a scouting supervisor in 1980. He was responsible for scouting the southeast United States from 1980-83 and added Latin America to his territory in 1984.

Originally from Hollywood, FL, Maier graduated from South Broward High School in 1970. He attended Broward Junior College in Fort Lauderdale and Florida State University, graduating with a bachelor's degree in education. Marty and his wife, the former Diane Sherman, reside in Oakland, CA. He enjoys snow skiing, golf and fresh-water fishing in his spare time.

FRED McALISTER
EASTERN CROSSCHECKER

Fred McAlister was named the Cardinals' special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as the club's scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in nine of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. Through 1993, McAlister's drafts produced 41 players who played for the Cardinals, as well as six players who reached the majors with other organizations.

McAlister also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967-69. He then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969-1979.

McAlister, 69, resides in Clearwater, FL with his wife, Patti.

GEORGE KISSELL
SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to the Director of Player Development Mike Jorgensen. Because of his expertise in the fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since he joined the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals' coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, NY, native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (NY) College. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.

JOE PETTINI
MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Pettini takes over as the Cardinals' Minor League Field Coordinator after spending the previous three seasons as Manager at Louisville. He guided the Redbirds to the American Association Championship in 1995, and managed a total of eight seasons in the Cardinals minor league system, posting a career record of 475-569.

The 42-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with the Cardinals' Hamilton, Ontario, club. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991-93 season (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he was signed by the Montreal Expos as a non-drafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born on January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, WV. He graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, WV, in 1973. Pettini received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, GA. He married the former Barbara Sperlazza on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

MARK RIGGINS
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Mark is entering his 2nd season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator and his 14th season in the organization. In 1995, he served as the Cardinals' pitching coach under Joe Torre and Mike Jorgensen and was the pitching coach at Louisville from 1990 to 1994.

The 40-year-old Riggins began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, to Arkansas in 1986, to Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining Louisville in 1990.

Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of the 1983 season.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Murray, KY, with wife Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.

DYAR MILLER
ASSISTANT PITCHING COORDINATOR

Miller begins his first stint as a roving pitching instructor after spending the past two seasons as the pitching coach at Louisville.

Miller previously coached in the Cardinals' system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians' organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 50-year-old Miller, a former pitcher, was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born May 29, 1946, in Batesville, IN. He graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. He and his wife, the former Bertha Jo Williams, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Batesville. Miller, a teacher during the off-season, enjoys golf, hiking, and fishing.

JOHNNY LEWIS
MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Lewis returns to his role as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor, which he has been serving as in all but one season since 1990. In 1995, he coached at St. Petersburg. In addition, he was an instructor in the St. Louis system from 1982-1984 and managed for five years before that at Calgary (1977-78), Gastonia (1979) and Johnson City (1980-81). Johnny has also served two coaching stints at the major league level with the Cardinals, 1973-76 and 1984-89.

Lewis, signed as an outfielder by St. Louis in 1959, broke into the majors with the Cardinals in 1964. He spent the next three years with the New York Mets, striking one of the 1965 season's most memorable blows by hitting a 10th-inning homer to break up a no-hitter by the Cincinnati Reds' Jim Maloney. Lewis retired as a player after the 1968 season.

Lewis worked in the Cardinals' front office as assistant promotions and sales director for two years and was a farm system administrative assistant in 1972. He joined the Cardinals' coaching staff in March 1973 and remained for four years.

Lewis, 57, was born in Greenville, AL, and lives in Cantonment, FL, where he sells real estate during the off-season.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

GAYLEN PITTS
LOUISVILLE

Gaylen Pitts is entering his 17th season in the Cardinals' organization and his second stint as the Louisville manager. He worked last season as the Cardinals Minor League Field Coordinator after serving the previous five seasons as a coach at the major league level. Gaylen was the Cardinals' bullpen coach from 1991-94 and third base coach in 1995.

Pitts has managed at Arkansas (1981-82, 89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87), Johnson City (1988) and Louisville (1990), where he also coached in 1983-84. He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts was signed by the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, 50, resides in Columbia, IL, with his wife Julia, and son, Travis Ray (8-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow and water-skiing, and racquetball.

RICK MAHLER
ARKANSAS

Mahler begins his sixth season in the Cardinals' organization and second as Arkansas manager, after leading the Travelers to a 67-73 record last season. From 1992 to 1995 he was an instructor for Cardinals' minor league pitchers after completing a major league career that spanned 11 seasons with Atlanta and Cincinnati.

Mahler signed with the Braves as a non-drafted free agent in 1975 after playing collegiate ball at Trinity University (San Antonio, TX). After brief appearances with Atlanta in 1979 (he collected a hit in his first at-bat) and 1980, Mahler fashioned a 2.81 ERA as a starter-reliever during the 1981 season. His best major league season came in 1985, when he started the season with seven consecutive wins en route to 17 victories and a 3.48 ERA. In 1988, he ranked second in the N.L. with a ratio of 1.5 walks per nine innings pitched.

Mahler signed with Cincinnati in December 1988 and pitched in the Reds' system through the 1990 season. He ended his career in 1991, splitting the season in the Montreal and Atlanta farm systems.

The 43-year-old Mahler and his wife, Sheryl, live in Marietta, GA, with their sons Ricky, Robby, Timothy and Tyler.

ROY SILVER
PRINCE WILLIAM

Silver takes over the managerial duties for the Cardinals' newest affiliate at Prince William after guiding the Peoria Chiefs to a 79-57 record last season. He begins his fifth season as a manager in the Cardinals' organization, the previous two at Peoria. In 1994, he led New Jersey to a 43-32 record and the New York-Penn League championship. In 1993, he guided Chandler to a 31-22 record and earned Manager of the Year honors in the Arizona League. Silver has a career managerial record of 215-183 (.540). He coached at Springfield in 1992 after an eight-year playing career in the Cardinals' farm system.

The 34-year-old Silver was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Cardinals in July 1984. A catcher-outfielder, he played at Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville.

Silver was born on September 22, 1962, in New York City. He graduated from Half Hollow Hills East High School on Long Island in 1980. He attended Eckerd College in Florida from 1980 to 1984 and was named to the Sunshine State All-Conference team. During the off-season, Silver lives in St. Petersburg, FL, with his wife, Dana, and daughter, Olivia.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

JOE CUNNINGHAM
PEORIA

Cunningham takes over as manager at Peoria after spending last season as the Cardinals roving minor league instructor and 1995 as a coach at Louisville. As a manager in 1994, he led Madison to a 66-73 record and guided Johnson City to a 37-31 mark in 1993, when he was named Appalachian League Manager of the Year. In 1992, he guided Chandler to a 28-28 record in his managerial debut. Cunningham previously coached at Hamilton in 1989 and at Johnson City in 1990 and 1991.

The 34-year-old Cunningham, son of former Cardinals' All-Star outfielder and long-time front office employee Joe Cunningham, Jr., played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community college in Panama City, Florida. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing.

JEFF SHIREMAN
NEW JERSEY

Shireman takes over the managerial reigns for the first time in his career after spending the past two seasons as a coach for Arkansas in the Cardinals' farm system. He ended a seven-year minor-league playing career in the Cardinals organization in 1994.

The 30-year-old Shireman was drafted by the Cardinals in June 1988. An infielder, he had stops at Johnson City, Springfield, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. Shireman attended Georgia Southern, where he earned All-Conference honors in 1987 and 1988, and was named Conference Player of the Year in 1988.

Shireman was born March 3, 1966 at Ames, Iowa. He graduated from Bucholz High School, where he earned all-state honors in 1984 and all-district recognition from 1981 to 1983. He makes his off-season home in Little Rock, AR.

STEVE TURCO
JOHNSON CITY

Turco begins his sixth season of managing in the Cardinals' organization and his fourth year at Johnson City. Last season, he led Johnson City to a 42-26 record and in 1994, he guided the team to an Appalachian League playoff berth. He is 189-157 in five seasons as a manager.

The 38-year-old Turco also has three years' coaching experience to his credit, starting as a coach at Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Turco was signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder and played in the farm system from 1979 to 1984.

Turco graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Largo, FL.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

CHRIS MALONEY
LOUISVILLE

Maloney begins his first season as a coach at the triple-A level, after spending the past two seasons as the manager of the Cardinals' single-A affiliate at St. Petersburg. This will be his seventh season coaching in the Cards organization.

In 1993, Maloney guided the Savannah Cardinals to a 94-48 record and the South Atlantic League championship-a feat that warranted his selection by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as its 1993 Manager of the Year. The year before, his .737 winning percentage (56-20) at Hamilton was the highest ever posted by a Cardinals' farm team. Overall, Maloney has a career managerial record of 397-291 (.577). Prior to taking his first managerial job at Johnson City in 1991, Maloney coached at Springfield in 1988, at Arkansas in 1989 and at Johnson City in 1990.

Maloney was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets in June 1983. The outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played for Springfield.

Maloney graduated in 1979 from St. Joseph High School in Jackson, MS, and from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting, and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives in Jackson during the off-season.

MARTY MASON
LOUISVILLE

Mason begins his first season at Louisville and his 12th as a coach in the Cardinals' organization.

The 39-year-old Mason's coaching career began in 1986 at St. Petersburg, where he spent two seasons. He coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas from 1990-96.

Mason originally was signed by the New York Yankees in 1980. He was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. Mason also appeared with Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, KY. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on February 22, 1986. The couple have one child: Brandy Leigh (8-17-88). Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

LUIS MELENDEZ
ARKANSAS

After coaching at Louisville last season, Melendez moves to Arkansas. He managed New Jersey in 1995, and in 1994 he guided Savannah to an 82-55 record and the South Atlantic League Championship. He served as a roving instructor for the minor leagues from 1991 to 1993 after managing at Hamilton in 1990 and Peoria in 1989. In his managerial career, Melendez has a 171-173 record. He also coached at Hamilton in 1988, his first season on the club's minor league staff.

The former outfielder, signed by St. Louis in 1968, saw action in eight major league seasons with the Cardinals and Padres. He enjoyed his best year in 1973, establishing career highs in games (121), runs (35), hits (91), doubles (18) and RBI (35).

Melendez, born August 11, 1949, in Aibonito, Puerto Rico, still makes his off-season home there.

RICH FOLKERS
ARKANSAS

Folkers moves up to Arkansas after working the past four seasons as the St. Petersburg pitching coach. Prior to rejoining the Cardinals, the Tampa Bay resident spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Eckerd College.

The 50-year-old Folkers had a seven-year major league career with the Mets, Cardinals, Padres and Brewers. He posted a career 19-23 record and a 4.12 ERA. His best season came in 1974, when he was 6-2 with two saves and a 3.00 ERA for the Cardinals.

RAY SEARAGE
PRINCE WILLIAM

Searage begins his first season as the pitching coach for the Cardinals' Carolina League entry. He joined the Cardinals' organization in 1994 and coached at Madison before working at Peoria the past two seasons.

Searage had a nine-year major league career with the Mets, Brewers, White Sox and Dodgers. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in 1976.

The 41-year-old Searage attended West Liberty (WV) State College. He and his wife, the former Vicki Allen, and their three children reside in St. Petersburg, FL.

GARY BUCKELS
PEORIA

Buckels, 31, begins his first coaching assignment after finishing his playing career in 1995. Buckels played for eight seasons, starting his career in the California Angels organization. He played in 10 games with the Cardinals in 1994, going 0-1 with a 2.25 ERA. He attended Cal-State Fullerton and was signed as a free-agent in 1987. Buckels made the triple-A All-Star team in 1994 while pitching for Louisville.

He was born in La Mirada, CA and resides in Fullerton, CA with his wife, Gina and daughters Megan and Tarah.

MIKE SNYDER
JOHNSON CITY

Snyder, 39, joins the Johnson City staff as the pitching coach, his first season in the Cardinals' organization. A former scout with Kansas City, San Francisco, Texas and the New York Yankees, Snyder began his coaching career in 1990 with the University of Indianapolis. He moved to the University of Louisville from 1993-96 and also worked as the pitching coach last summer with the independent Richmond Roosters in the Frontier League.

Snyder is a native of Greenwood, IN and now resides in Fishers, IN with his wife Erin, daughters Casey and Haley, and a son Nolan.

MARK GRATER
NEW JERSEY

Grater, 33, begins his first coaching assignment after ending his playing career in 1995. He spent parts of two seasons in the major leagues with the Cardinals and Detroit Tigers. Grater was a Cardinals' 24th round pick in the June, 1986 draft out of Florida International University, and is originally from Rochester, PA. He resides in Monaca, PA.

MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS

DAVE RICKETTS
MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Ricketts is entering his 24th year as an instructor with the organization and returns to his role as catching instructor. In 1995 he served as the pitching coach at Savannah.

The 61-year-old Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. He spent his last season as a player with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1970.

Ricketts began his coaching career with the Pirates, serving as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a major league coach in 1974. In 1976, he was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach form 1978 to 1991.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, PA. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife, Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

JOSE OQUENDO
MINOR LEAGUE INFIELD INSTRUCTOR

Oquendo, 33, begins his first season as an instructor in the organization after ending his 17-year playing career, which included stints with the Mets (1983-84), and Cardinals (1986-95). Oqendo, who was dubbed the "secret weapon," spent his last 10 seasons with the Cardinals as a middle infielder, and was a member of the club's N.L. Championship team in 1987. Oquendo enjoyed his finest season in 1989 when he hit .291 in a league-high 163 games and he owns a career fielding percentage of .992 as a second baseman.

Oquendo was born in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico and lives in St. Louis with his wife Zenaida, his three daughters, Adianez, Marilyn and Carolyn, and his son Eduardo.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS
MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE

250 Stadium Plaza
St. Louis, MO 63102
Office: (314) 425-0626
Fax: (314) 982-7399

Brian Bartow — Director
Mary Donovan — Assistant
Shawn Bertani — Assistant
Dave Fanucchi — Intern

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Cardinals on a daily basis. Season credentials will be laminated and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made in writing to the Cardinals Media Relations Office. Deadlines for credentials are as follows: Season – March 10; Daily – two working days prior to the game requested. All agencies must have a letter on file to have credentials issued via telephone. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only. No spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media also are prohibited from requesting autographs on the field. Any violations will result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available at the Press Will Call window located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium. Photo identification is required.

ADMISSION — The media entrance is through the ticket office lobby, located at street level on the west side of the stadium.

PRESS BOX — Take the elevators from the lobby to level 5. All persons entering the press box must sign in. The press box and broadcast booths are both located on level 5. The press box is for working members of the media only.

MEDIA DINING — Located inside the press box. It is open for meal service 1-1/2 hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately 90 minutes after the game for beverage service. There is a $7.00 charge for meal service.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals' and visitors' clubhouses are located on level 1. Access the clubhouses by taking the elevator to level 1 and then walking to the clubhouses. All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than ten minutes following the game's conclusion. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc.

FIELD — All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch. No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., photo pass).

NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box two hours prior to game time. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES — Five credit-card-only telephones are available for media use in the main press area. Two pay phones are also available in the press box.

TICKETS — All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to the Cardinals Media Relations Office by 2 p.m. for games beginning at 7:05 p.m. Requests for weekend games must be made by 5 p.m. on Friday to be filled. Tickets can be picked up at the Press Will Call windows between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium 90 minutes prior to the game. Photo identification is required.

TELEVISION

KPLR-TV (Channel 11), St. Louis, will televise locally and to a network of approximately 35 stations covering seven states. Fox Sports Midwest, a regional cable station, will televise 50 games. Commentary will be provided by Joe Buck, Bob Carpenter, Al Hrabosky, Rich Gould, Ozzie Smith and Bob Ramsey.

CARDINALS BROADCASTERS

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Buck was inducted into the Broadcaster's Hall of Fame in 1990. He was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX-Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He received widespread acclaim as the former voice of the National Football League and Jack had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League. His autobiography titled "Jack Buck: That's a Winner" will be released this year.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 26th season in the Cardinals' broadcast booth. His nine years as a Cardinal player and one year in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary and color, which are only heightened by his zeal for the game.

The 57-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series champion teams in 1964 and 1967 and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968.

The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease.

JOE BUCK

After spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds, Joe Buck joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991.

Buck, 27, who also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR and Prime was named Fox Sports lead baseball announcer in 1996 and he will handle those same duties again in 1997. Joe added the National Football League to his television duties in 1994 as an announcer on the Fox Network. Buck also has broadcast Missouri Tigers basketball games and in 1989 helped ESPN cover the Triple-A All-Star game.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993. They have a daughter, Natalie.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His expert commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals telecasts.

Hrabosky's fast rise in broadcasting came as no surprise. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

BOB CARPENTER

After broadcasting his first major league game in 1984 on the Cardinals' old Sportstime cable network, Carpenter returned to his St. Louis roots in 1995 after stops in the broadcast booths of the Texas Rangers, New York Mets and Minnesota Twins. Carpenter serves as the play-by-play voice on KPLR telecasts and he begins his 8th season of baseball on ESPN.

Carpenter also is remembered locally for broadcasting St. Louis Steamers indoor-soccer games from 1983-86, but more recently he has been one of the busiest announcers on the national level. On the USA Network, he has hosted the U.S. Open tennis championship and The Masters golf tournament. On ESPN, he has announced college football and basketball games, World Cup soccer and hosted Hall of Fame induction ceremonies.

The St. Louis native is a 1971 graduate of McBride High School and earned a degree in broadcasting from UMKC. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.

BOB RAMSEY

With 12 years of broadcasting experience in the St. Louis market ranging from serving as host of "The Whitey Herzog Show" to the Cardinal Pre-Game Show on the old Prime Sports Network, Ramsey jumps into the play-by-play seat for the Fox Sports Midwest road telecasts in 1997.

Known in St. Louis as the eleven-year "voice" of the St. Louis University Basketball Billikens, Ramsey also locally calls St. Louis Ambush indoor soccer action. His baseball broadcasting experience includes two seasons in the Texas League with the Shreveport Captains and Division I college baseball.

A 1974 graduate of Pattonville High School, Ramsey earned a broadcast journalism degree from Lindenwood College. He married the former Jennifer Myers on Ozzie Smith Day in 1996.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:
1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI which gives a club the lead it never relinquishes.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 P.M. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 P.M. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 P.M. it will be considered a night game. Twinight double-headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d)...A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

AMATEUR DRAFT
FREE-AGENCY DRAFT SUMMARY

Major League and National Association clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting free-agent player talent. Meetings are conducted by conference phone. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of selection until 10 days prior to next draft. Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed their junior year or turned 21 years old. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA or AA rosters, but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.
